CLUNK!
Hey!
Careful with that!
Sorry, sir.
My poor begonias...

Dr. Kim!
...
Amy?
What are you doing here?
I stopped by the hospital to see you but your office was cleared out.
They said you quit to take care of a family emergency...

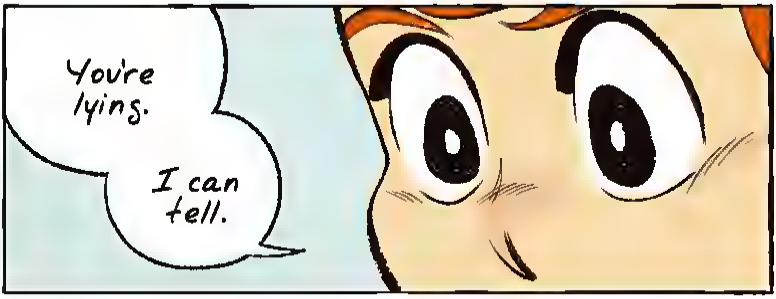
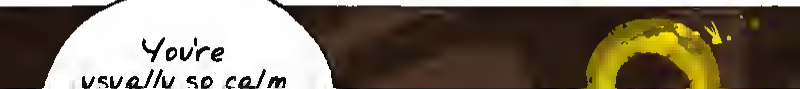
Oh--
Yeah.
My mom broke her hip.
She's getting too old to take care of herself, so we're going to go live with her in Ohiowa.

I'm sorry it's all so sudden, but--
I don't believe you.

What?

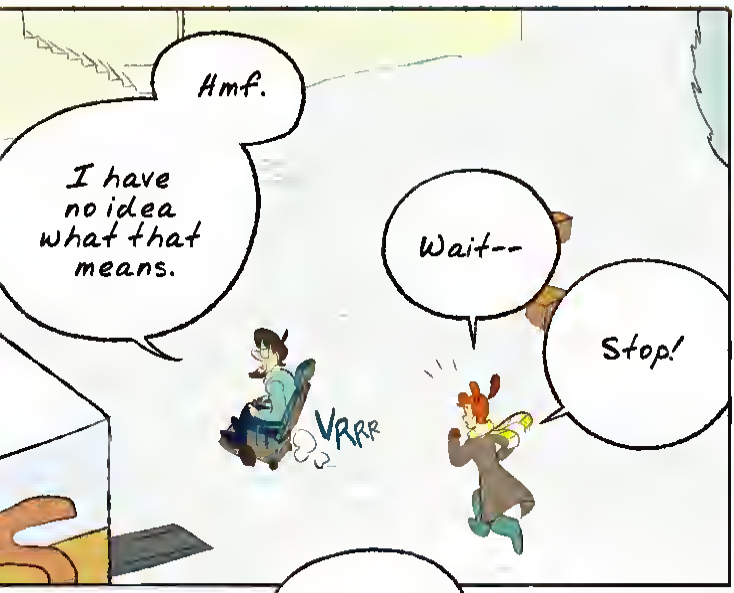


You're lying.
I can tell.

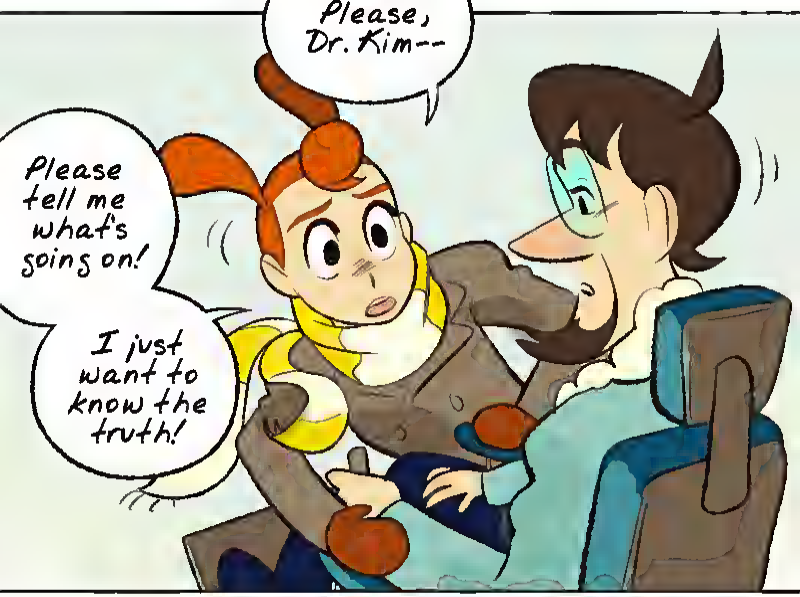


You're usually so calm

and composed, like a cup of chamomile tea--
--but today there's too much lemon in your flavor.
You're sour with anxiety...



Hmf.
I have no idea what that means.
Wait--
Stop!
VRRR



Please, Dr. Kim--
Please tell me what's going on!
I just want to know the truth!

The truth, huh?

The truth is...
Oliver wants to leave Kokomo.

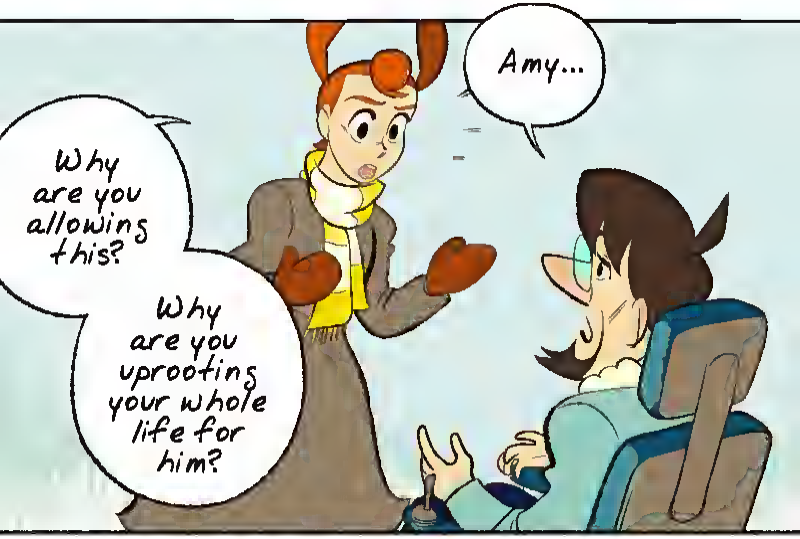
What?
Why?

I can't say.
I'm sorry.

running away, isn't he?

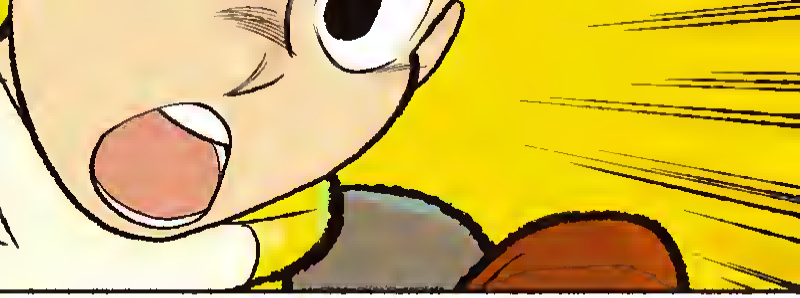
Hiding inside himself wasn't good enough, so he's leaving.
He's going to turn back into that cold person he used to be.

And you're going to help him do it.



Amy...
Why are you allowing this?
Why are you uprooting your whole life for him?

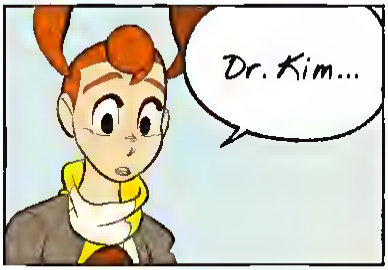
If you knew the circumstances...
He needs you to help him deal with his problems, not avoid them!
He needs you to--
To make hard decisions and--
And to be his father!



Sigh...

I'm sorry, Dr. Kim.
I'm just frustrated.

I've been working so hard to reach out to Oliver, to understand him better, but now--



Dr. Kim...

:sniff:
I'm fine.
You just reminded me of something my wife once told me.

You-- You're

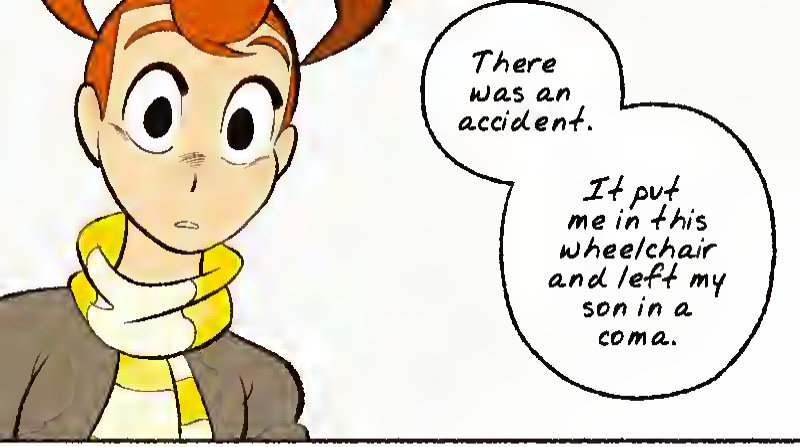
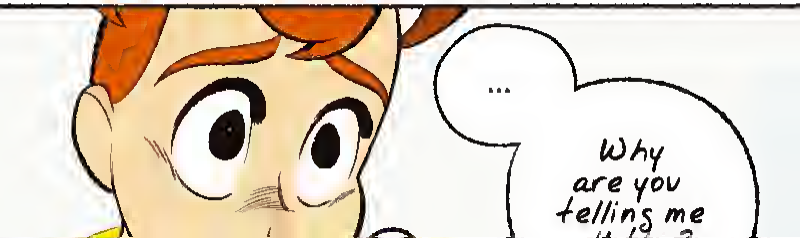
married?
No...
Not anymore.

We had a son.
But--



He died four months later. My wife left me shortly after that.

idea....
I don't blame her for leaving.
But I do blame myself for failing our son.
With all my medical expertise I couldn't do a thing to help him.

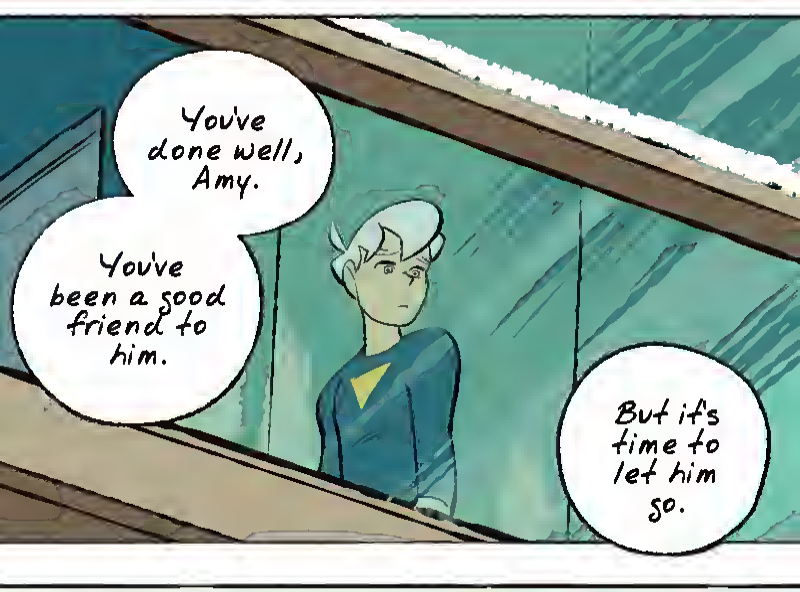


...
Why are you telling me

all this?

Because I want you trust me with Oliver.
When he came to me, I swore I wouldn't fail him like I failed my son.
That's how committed I am to helping that boy.

I know what I'm doing right now must look crazy, but you have to believe me, it's the best thing for Oliver.



Go enjoy your life and leave Oliver to me.

He'll be okay...

I promise.

Claire

"I really like Space Boy, the art style and the character development is amazing, and you don't see it a lot in other comics or books. It's really special!"

Thanks Claire!
I love how Oliver's rocket circles Amy's coat.

Charissa

"Oliver surrounded by the nothingness."

Ha ha--
Only Oliver's hair has managed to hold out from the Nothing.
Come back to us, Oliver!

"I drew this after reading the entirety of space boy in one day"

Yeah...
I think most people binge Space Boy when they find the comic.
I knew one guy who carefully read one episode a day-- that must have taken will-power!

That's all for now.
See you guys next week!
